About the BMI Group

Wolfin Bautechnik GmbH is part of the BMI Group and, following the merger of Braas Monier and Icopal, is the largest manufacturer of flat roof and pitched roof systems and waterproofing solutions in Europe. With 128 production sites and significant market presence in Europe, Asia and South Africa, the company combines more than 165 years of experience. Customers are expected to benefit from this in the foreseeable future, among other things, through better services and optimised processes.
